NEWS RELEASE

LABC 2011 East Midlands Excellence Award for A & S Enterprises Limited

A & S Enterprises Limited were finalists in the East Midlands 2011 Building Excellence Awards held at the Marriott Hotel in Leicester. The award was for the best conversion of a building into dwellings with architects David Granger & Associates and with Mather Jamie acting as client agent. The project was the conversion of the Estate Yard at Ticknall into dwellings for the Harpur Crewe Estate.

The nomination was put forward by David Granger architects and was supported by South Derbyshire District Council LABC. Despite early setbacks for A&S Enterprises with the need to reinforce foundations, provision for bats and extra works introduced such as GSHP, the project was completed to a high level of quality.

Commenting on the latest awards, Andy Sulin, Director said "A & S Enterprises are very pleased to pick up this award in recognition of high standards of design, construction and workmanship. We hope to have some worthy projects for consideration in 2012 "
